- Artists must take care to have the correct information about a print recorded on the sales tag – if the work is an original print, etching, giclee, limited edition, open edition, reproduction or other. We want the customer to have the correct information about what sort of print they are purchasing.
- Insurance of artworks is the artist's responsibility at the show and in transit. We will endeavour to handle your work with care and respect but the insurance of artwork is the artist's responsibility. Please realise If any damage or loss occurs it is at the artist's own risk.

- 3D work, if heavy, large or needing assemblage will be the artist's responsibility to install and deliver to the Events Centre at the Wigram Air Force Museum site. It is also the artist's responsibility to uninstall the work and to remove it and arrange delivery to the purchaser.
- Artists please follow the times, dates and venues for delivery and collection of works as specified on the artist timeline located on this website and your welcome pack.
- Display Pack Artists please make sure to have details of your work in for registration by DUE DATE.
- The Christchurch Art Show reserves the right to remove any artwork from the show even if we have previously accepted the work.
- If during the show any artist sells all of their stocked artwork and their artist pack is empty then that space becomes the property of The Christchurch Art Show to use as they wish.
- Artists who intend to deliver and pick up works will need to do so on the dates arranged by The Christchurch Art Show. We are not responsible for work delivered outside the given dates and times. As we provide you with delivery and pick up information we expect you to take note of it and act on it.
- All unsold work to be collected and removed from the Events Centre at the Wigram Air Force Museum site by the artist on the date and times selected by The Christchurch Art Show. We are not responsible for work left behind.

- Terms and conditions are subject to change.

The cash and carry concept. The Christchurch Art Show is a cash and carry art show. Sold artwork (except for heavy sculpture) leaves the building with the purchaser.

Work is hung and displayed in your artist pack. Your excess work is stored onsite and as artwork is sold and moves on with the purchaser your stored work replaces the sold work in a new exhibition. This means that the exhibition is constantly rotating. The movement of artwork is dictated by the movement of sales. We advise artists to make sure that they provide enough extra work to replace their sold work.

Artists are present to promote their own work over the three day period are able to manage their own rotation of works. However, The Christchurch Art Show has full control and the final say in the hanging and exhibition of all works in the show.

The movement of artworks in a cash and carry show is initiated by the purchaser and because of this we cannot guarantee that all the artworks supplied will be on exhibit. Please see Display Pack rotation for the managing of Display Pack work.

Display Pack Rotation

Please be aware that because The Christchurch Art Show works on a rotational hanging basis - work is rehung as it is sold. Your work will not be hung together on the wall, it will rotate on the wall and will be hung at different times over the show's duration. This means that your work will not always be visible during the show. As we want your work to sell our staff works hard to ensure that all work is hung out over the period of the show. We constantly rehang our display area to ensure that all work is seen by the buying public. The hanging of the Display pack is at the discretion of The Christchurch Art Show and no correspondence or discussion will be entered into.

Application Selection

Artists must make an application to The Christchurch Art Show to have their work reviewed in the selection process for our show. Art that is selected for The Christchurch Art Show will be of a high standard and presentation. It will be in a fit state and be ready for exhibition – see above in these terms and conditions. We expect the work to reflect the personal style of the artist, to be their own intellectual property and to be priced accordingly – not over or under priced. Selection is at the discretion of The Christchurch Art Show and no correspondence or discussion will be entered into on our final decision. We inform artists of their selection outcome 4 weeks after the application fee has been paid.

Art Awards.

We have one art award on offer for our 2019 show. The Christchurch Art Show People's Choice Award.

Selection for the award is based on the sales from the previous year's art show. The Top Ten selling artists returning to the show will be asked to provide a work to be voted on by the public for The Christchurch Art Show People's Choice Award.

To be eligible you must have your work selected for an Artist Pack 2, 3, 4, 5 at The Christchurch Art Show. Please go to our Art Awards page on www.chchartshow to read more about the 2018 art award.
